

THE PSYCHOBABBLE

Midterm Time!

Well, it's that time again – MIDTERMS!!! Since I yet again, have nothing to write about in this extremely long section, I will give you some wonderful study tips to help you through those exams!

- Study w/ a buddy... if you don't know the answer, they might...
- Get a good night's sleep the night before
- Eat all important meals that day, don't skip out on breakfast ☺ you need food for you brain!

2nd year students at the NASP Conference in NY!!

- Go with your gut response to a question... although, Dr. Reynolds will tell you to go back and change your answer – higher probability you will get it correct... you decide on a strategy ☺
- Good luck! Guess well ☺

Recipe of the Month

Brie Pie! (Danielle Klein)

Ingredients:

- Brie
- 2 cups brown sugar
- 1 cup finely chopped apple (or fav. Fruit)
- 1 cup raisins
- 2 pkgs. of crescent rolls

Preheat oven to 350 deg. Open one package of crescent rolls – lay triangular pieces of crescent rolls on a baking sheet. Connect pieces so all pieces are attached and make one bottom piece. Place bottom in oven & bake for 6-7 mins. While the bottom is baking, cut the bryn off of the brie. After the bottom is baked, place the brie on top of the bottom crescent roll. Next, pour  $\frac{3}{4}$  cup of brown sugar on top of the brie. Then pour the apples & raisins on top of the brown sugar, & pour the remaining brown sugar on top of the brie & other ingredients.

Now, place the 2nd pkg. of crescent rolls on top of the brie & ingredients forming a pie form (push all corners of rolls to enclose brie & ingredients). Cook for 15-18 min. or until all dough is baked/brown.
