

THE PSYCHOBABBLE

Happy Fall Holidays!

Again, this is acting like a filler-section, so please send me something that might actually be useful information for next month... please!

- Spice up your home with some browns, oranges, and reds to get the 'fall feeling'
- Add a cinnamon broom to 'spice up' the scent – found at any local grocery store
- Change out the accent pillows for a simple fix for your sofa!

2009 & 2010 cohort students at the Ice Cream Social!

Want a Change in Assitanship?

Jen Grill's supervisor is currently looking for a 2010 cohort student to assist her with helping undergraduate education majors pass the FTCE certification exam. You would work mostly at home through online communication and get paid $10/hour.

She is looking for someone to work for 10 hours/week, but you could possibly take over Jen's position once she graduates in May. Don't forget, you get a partial tuition waiver!!

Contact Jen at bocasangel46@yahoo.com

Recipe of the Month

Pumpkin Bread Pudding

www.epicurious.com

Ingredients:

1 cup heavy cream
 3/4 cup canned solid-pack pumpkin
 1/2 cup whole milk
 1/2 cup sugar
 2 large eggs plus 1 yolk
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
 1/8 teaspoon ground allspice
 Pinch of ground cloves
 5 cups cubed (1-inch) day-old baguette or crusty bread
 3/4 stick unsalted butter, melted

Preparation

Preheat oven to 350°F with rack in middle.

Whisk together cream, pumpkin, milk, sugar, eggs, yolk, salt, and spices in a bowl.

Toss bread cubes with butter in another bowl, then add pumpkin mixture and toss to coat. Transfer to an ungreased 8-inch square baking dish and bake until custard is set, 25 to 30 minutes
