

UCF Police Community Relations Programs

PSST - Improv—Have you ever wondered how you would deal with being a victim of crime or some other offence? Then this is for you! This will be a fun, interactive way to learn some decision making skills. Offered by the UCF Police and Victim Services.

Operation ID—The engraving of your valuables with your driver license number and instructions on how to register your property on line.

Vehicle Maintenance—Do you know where your dip stick is? Could you change your tire if it went flat? We're here to help you learn the basics of vehicle maintenance.

Q & A Session—Have you always wondered why police use so many lights on a vehicle stopped for a traffic violation? Or maybe you have a relative who needs help with a stalker. This is your chance to ask questions that an officer may be able to help you with. Just ask!

SAFE—(Self defense Awareness, Familiarization, and Exchange) is a women's self defense class. This is a 2 hour program offered to women only. There is a $5.00 charge for materials.

Spring Break—Suggestions to keep you safe while traveling.

Identity Theft—Learn how to protect yourself from becoming a victim of ID theft and find out what some of the latest scams are.

Criminal Justice for beginners—Learn the basics of what happens when someone is arrested and booked into jail.

Digital Safety and Awareness—Learn how to protect yourself while using various social network programs online.

Use of Force—Learn what officer's do when confronted with uncooperative people and how we determine what force can be used.

Alcohol Awareness and DUI's—Learn about the state laws governing alcohol use and abuse.

Hostile Intruder—Suggestions for dealing with an active shooter.

For more information on these programs or to set a date for a presentation, please contact:

Cpl Jim Roop— (407) 823-2165; Ofc Jeannette Emert (407) 823 6576;
or Ofc Amber Silvia (407) 823-0341
or stop by the John T. Washington Center office